REFLECTIONS ON ACTS

We've been studying the book of Acts on Sunday mornings in our series, "Depending on Jesus." As the series comes to a close the first Sunday in March, Pastor Corey encouraged the congregation to reflect on some of the lessons learned through our study. Here are the submissions we received:

When There is a Truck-sized Opening to Share My Faith Betty Sawyer

An 8-year-old asked me, "Grandma, do you believe in God?" "Yes, Miles, I do," I replied. He went on, "Do you think God is real?"

As I stood there doing dishes, I thought, "what is this little guy really asking?" I prayed a quick arrow prayer for the right words. What do you say to an 8-year-old little boy who asks the most important question in the universe?

"That's a great question," I replied. "There's a guy in the Bible who even said, 'our belief [preaching] is in vain and our message is worthless' if we don't believe in God [and Jesus raised from the dead.] I probably messed up the words, but I wanted this young man to know it was ok to ask questions, and other great men have asked lots of questions in the past.

I went on, "In the Bible this guy, Paul, found out there really is a God. He met him on the road to Damascus, where he saw Jesus and was blinded for three days. Have you heard that story? He believed, because he was healed and really knew, and saw for real, that there was God."

And off ran the little guy, evidently ok with my answer.

Studying Acts has shown me more about letting the Holy Spirit guide me to share the good news. All of Paul's suffering and imprisonment helped Paul grow in faith so he could write all those profound letters which make up so much of our New Testament. It's encouraged me to share my faith with others in word and deed.

And God sends us opportunities to share, like Paul had while in prison. My opportunity came on the feet of a little boy. It was a "truck sized opening" where God helped me share the good news that HE is real.

Faith is Everything Tim Sievers

As I reflect on our journey through Acts, I am struck by Paul's faith - his trust in God. When confronted by angry mobs - faith. When on trial with his life weighing in the balance - faith. Shipwrecked at sea - faith. Imprisoned in Rome, Caesarea or Philippi - faith.

Nothing shook Paul's faith in God and that trust helped him stay on mission and spread the Good News. Paul's faith kept him from fear and despair. Paul's faith allowed him to be a conduit of the Gospel in every situation he encountered. And because of Paul's faith - the Gospel spread through all the ancient world.

Paul truly Depended on Jesus. His faith challenges me today. The circumstances I face are no match for what Paul experienced, and yet, I'm nowhere near as bold in proclaiming the Good News about Jesus. What's stopping me? What's stopping you?

Lord, help us to Depend on Jesus. Increase our faith that we may boldly and with humility share the Good News with our world today. Amen.

Unstoppable Pastor Corey Laughary

God's plan to reach the world will not be stopped! God's love for His people cannot be topped! There is no problem, pain or person that is greater than the powerful presence of God— the Holy Spirit!

Outside the Box Anonymous

There are so many examples of heroes in the book of Acts but one that has always stood out to me is Barnabas. We hear of him first in Acts 4:36-37 -

Thus Joseph, who was also called by the apostles Barnabas (which means son of encouragement), a Levite, a native of Cyprus, sold a field that belonged to him and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

The next we hear of him is in Acts 9:26-27 -

(this has to do with Paul being accepted by the Apostles) And when he had come to Jerusalem, he attempted to join the disciples. And they were all afraid of him, for they did not believe that he was a disciple. But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles and declared to them how on the road he had seen the Lord, who spoke to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus.

For me personally, Barnabas is a hero. He had to have a deep trusting relationship with the Lord for him to bring Paul before the Apostles. For in fact, Paul had been the main persecutor of the followers of Christ. Barnabas acted outside the box and gave the world Paul - the greatest orator, preacher and writer of the things pertaining to Christ our Lord.

Never Abandoned Tina Laughary

Saul was a bad man. Selfish, prideful and power hungry, it seemed he would stop at nothing to climb the political ladder. But then he met Jesus. Everything changed for Paul that day on the road to Damascus. Life as he had known it was over and he had to decide where to go from there. Many of us can relate to Paul. We think we have our life plan all laid out but then we meet Jesus and everything changes. The changes Paul made were incredibly difficult, painful, and dangerous, but obedience to God became the guiding light in Paul's life. All things became new for Paul and the world changed because of it. God is still using the obedience of Paul to guide people to him 2,000 years later. Doing what is best isn't always easiest and the easiest road is seldom the best road. God never abandoned Paul as he walked his difficult road and He won't abandon you or I either.

WHY JONAH

Pastor Corey Laughary

Why is our next book of the Bible Jonah for Sunday sermons?

Jonah is a great, relatively short, Old Testament book with many lessons to teach us.

It is not just about the fish. It has lessons to teach us about:

Running from God
God's Love for the outsiders
God's Love for His people
How Jonah points toward Jesus
God's heart to forgive and restore

This book is important for people in our culturally divisive times to read. Jonah didn't want to go and preach God's mercy to his enemies. There were definitely reasons for Jonah to not want to minister to Nineveh. But God loves both us and those who oppose us. God is calling His people, much like He called Jonah, to move towards our "enemies" and not run from them.

Jonah is very imperfect, he is very different from Jesus. But through his imperfections we can see our own need for Jesus. Jonah is reflection of broken humanity. I hope you will dive in to our Jonah series.

Please consider reading the short book of Jonah multiple times, hopefully once a week, as we journey through this season. Each time you read it pray that God will teach you something you need to learn. Whatever you do, don't run away from the Jonah series! Unless you really like fish.

Depending on Jesus,

Pastor Corey

MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID

Dear Church Family,

I have been accepted to attend a Mental Health First Aid Trainers Training in Seattle, WA April 1-5. Through generations donations of friends of PFC, including the Palouse Lions Club, I am able to attend this training put on by the National Council for Behavioral Health.

Becoming a trainer will allow me to offer no-cost or low-cost Mental Health First Aid training to people in our small-towns and rural areas. Mental Health First Aid is like medical first aid, but for mental health issues and illnesses.

For more information, please check out mentalhealthfirstaid.org, or please contact me.

Please pray for me as I attend this training.

Pastor Corey

OFF THE SHELF

TIM KELLER: THE PRODIGAL PROPHET
(AVAILABLE AT PFC FOR $15)

I gladly admit I am a fan of Tim Keller's writings. But even I didn't realize how insightful his new book on Jonah would be for my own life. I had insights on self-worth, personal calling, God's love, and more. I encourage you to consider reading The Prodigal Prophet as we journey through the book of Jonah during Lent. Keller's book is much, much longer than the book of Jonah itself. Jonah is rich with lessons for the Christ-follower and seeker alike.

Check out "The Prodigal Prophet" reading plan on YouVersion, aka the Bible App.

I love Keller's book, but more importantly, read and re-read the book of Jonah itself—you won't be disappointed!

MEN'S RETREAT

In our world today, full of bitterness and anger, it's not hard to imagine ourselves in the midst of a war. But as much as we battle each other over cultural and political differences, there is a great war being waged - a spiritual battle, of which we often are unaware and ill-suited to fight.

March 8-9

Theme | Putting on the Armor of God

Ephesians 6:10-20

The bad news is that in our flawed humanity, we are unfit to fight the battle ourselves. The good news is that God can equip you with the tools for battle and in him there is victory. At our men's retreat this year, Brian Harpell will speak openly and truthfully about the battle being waged and together we will suit up with the right tools to achieve victory over our enemy.

Brian has served in pastoral ministry for 42 years - the last 30 of which, he has been the lead pastor at First Baptist Church of Everett, WA. Brian has a passion for empowering others to serve according to their gifting and passion. For 16 years, he has been chaplain to the Everett Silvertips ice hockey team, and he continues to play ice hockey twice a week.

YOUTH RETREAT

At Spring Retreat this year, we will focus on the idea of intentionality in faith. Intentionality is doing something for a reason—on purpose. Intentionality helps us address a crucial question that we often have as we wrestle with our faith: Why, does it so often feel like the best we can do is turn on “autopilot” and try to get through the day?

Is living life on “autopilot” what God really wants for us? No! God calls us to so much more—to follow him and follow Jesus' example as we live out our lives. Through this retreat, our speaker, Andrew Derr, will help you understand who God is, why he cares about you, and why he calls us to live intentional lives every day where no moment is wasted.

Come ready to experience what God has prepared for you, whether it be learning who he is for the first time or growing deeper in your faith.

ROSS POINT CABIN PROJECT

Double Your Impact Matching Funds Opportunity

So far, we've collected, $1,330 toward the Ross Point Cabin project. But that means we still need to raise $670 more, which will be matched dollar for dollar by the church. That means you have the opportunity to double the impact of your donation! If you donate $5 the church will donate $5. If you donate $100, the church will donate $100. Matching funds from the church will not exceed a total of $2,000.

Together it is our hope to send $4,000 to Ross Point to help the Cabin Project succeed. Donations can be made online at www.palousechurch.org - just select the "Online Giving" button on the top of the page to make your donation and be sure to select "Camp Cabin Matching Fund." If you prefer to give through the mail or our regular offering, just write "Camp Cabin Matching Fund" on your check or giving envelope!

Together we can help Ross Point reach more youth and adults with powerful Christ-centered programming that changes lives and makes disciples.

LENT SOUP SUPPERS

When? What? Why? Where? Who?

During the Season of Lent on Wednesdays at 6 PM we invite EVERYONE to gather in the Fellowship Hall of PFC for an encouraging time together. We will eat wonderful soups and bread, and hear an encouraging "Jonah story". What's a Jonah story? It's when someone runs from God's call, but God goes after them and does what is needed to get them back on the right path.

Join us for Lent Soup Suppers every Wednesday from March 13 - April 17.

CHURCH ON A HILL PODCAST

SUNDAY SCHOOL UPDATES

Mike Patrick: Our High School students are studying Ephesians. A short video introduces each lesson, followed by discussion. Occasionally, the class breaks for a lesson from Proverbs with personal application.

Brenda Cook: Middle School students have just finished Teen Topic lessons - each student picked a topic of interest to study. Some examples of what we covered are: Time Management, Fear, Dealing with Doubt & Pushing the Limits. We are now switching gears and watching the movie "God's Not Dead," pausing often for discussion as we go.

Paula Schwartz: The 3rd-5th grade class is learning about Moses, and will continue this study for several weeks.

Justin Brown: 1st-2nd grade class just started studying the importance of prayer, why we pray and how Jesus taught us to pray. The kids are learning the Lord's Prayer and when they can recite it they will have a party together to celebrate!

Carol Fielder and Anita McGovern: Our children, ages 3 - 5, have been learning about Jesus' miracles. The next few weeks we will learn how Jesus taught through parables.

PSSST KIDS....IT'S NEVER TOO LATE TO JOIN US IN CLASS!

KINDNESS FOR KIDS FOOD PANTRY DONATIONS

Under the leadership and direction of Jayne Oleson and with the help of community volunteers, a food pantry has been established at the Palouse School. Its primary purpose is to send food home with kids who have indicated a need. The free and optional supplemental weekend food program provides a bag of food every Friday or the day before an extended weekend/holiday to ensure kids have access to healthy food while away from school. The pantry also is used for elementary students who don't have daytime snacks and for high school athletes who could benefit from a healthy snack before practice.

The pantry operates by donation. Donated items can be delivered to the Palouse School during school hours or to Palouse Federated Church, where there are collection boxes both inside and outside the building. Financial donations are welcome and will provide dairy items along with fresh fruit and vegetables. Please make checks payable to Kindness for Kids and deliver to the Palouse School office.

LOVE IS DANGEROUS

Tina Laughary

Sometimes I don't want to love my enemies. Are you shocked? First of all, yes—I do have enemies. I am guessing you do too. It matters how we define enemies. An enemy is someone who wishes me evil or tries to make my life difficult...just for fun. So I have enemies—and so do you. It's really difficult to actively love someone who wishes you harm, but that is what God has called us to do.

First of all—it doesn't seem fair. Someone wants to hurt me and I am supposed to show them love? How is that fair? Well the truth is, it isn't fair. It is merciful. God knows that practicing this type of mercy, showing love is actually good for us. By the way, it is good for our enemy too.

I think about my enemies every March. I love Saint Patrick's Day—for a couple of reasons. 20 years ago, this Saint Patrick's Day, I left for a mission trip to Ireland. It was amazing—life changing in so many ways. The other reason I love Saint Patrick's Day is the story of Saint Patrick himself. What an amazing example of someone who loved his enemies. A young Patrick was kidnapped from his home in France and taken to the heathen Island of Ireland. He was held captive and forced to be a slave. At some point, through miraculous means, he escaped his captors and returned to his family and his homeland. But then, Patrick was compelled by God to return to Ireland and bring the good news of Jesus Christ to that Godless land. Largely due to Patrick's efforts, many of the Irish repented and turned to God.

What incredible faith it must take to listen to a call from God like Patrick's. Of course, it is always difficult to show love. When we love someone, we are always making ourselves vulnerable. What if they don't accept our love? What if they reject us? In Patrick's case, his life was literally in danger. Love is always dangerous—but it is worth it. Our love may not be reciprocated, and we may not see the "pay off" this side of glory, but God knows what is best for us. Obedience to Him doesn't always come with a tangible reward.

As long as we live in a fallen world, stained by sin, you and I will have enemies. There will be powers and forces out to get us. They want to see us turn from our convictions and retaliate hate for hate, evil for evil. Following Christ means fighting against this temptation. We don't fight hate with hate but with love. Love your enemies. Bless those who curse you. Throw "fair" out the window—like Saint Patrick.

SCAM ALERT

There has been a rash of scam phone calls lately and the City of Palouse asked us to pass on this alert. Scammers are getting trickier, often times using "ghosted" numbers that look like legitimate businesses or appear to be coming from your local area. Don't be fooled.

Helpful Tips to Identify a Scam:

1. Legitimate businesses will NEVER require your credit card, gift cards, debit cards, account numbers, SSN, over the phone.
2. Legitimate businesses will NEVER threaten to have authorities at your door if you don't provide financial compensation.
3. Legitimate sweepstakes will NEVER require an advance so you can receive your "winnings."
4. If you receive any calls that request payment, hang up and call a trusted friend, neighbor, or even City Hall, or the non-emergency Police Department number and someone will help you. But NEVER give any kind of payment until it has been determined safe by a reliable, trusted source.
5. Scammers sometimes mimic a loved one, like a grandchild. Don't fall for it. Hang up and call back your loved one on what you know is their phone number, not the number that just called you.
