Spiritual Freedom

Pastor Corey Laughary

What does it mean to have freedom as a Christian?

Our old master, sin, is abolished in Christ. "For sin shall no longer be your master, because you are not under the law, but under grace," Romans 6:14. We don't live by the "law" to please God. By the gift of God (a.k.a. "grace"), Jesus Christ has set us free from sin and its penalties. We are free to be who God created us to be. We are free to enjoy all the spiritual blessings He has made for us (Ephesians 1:3 - look it up). God is our freedom-giving Master. We worship and serve our God, not out of obligation, but, rather, out of love for Him. We freely choose to love God and love others.

The Bible is not a rule book, and Christian faith is not about "legalism" or following rules to impress God.

The Bible does contain rules and laws that teach us much about what is good and what is not. BUT, learning the rules and following them will not make us righteous and free - only Christ can make us righteous and free. Our new life in Him will lead us down a new path where the Holy Spirit will be present to guide us into freely following good laws and freely seeking to obey Jesus and His teachings.

"Our identity is a settled matter to God. We are no longer slaves to sin. We are freed children, sons and daughters of God!"

Following Christ should not feel like a burden. Following Jesus should feel like freedom! But it is not all about feelings! Our faith in Jesus is established on "facts," not feelings. We have the "fact" or reality of freedom in our soul because we believe in the fact of Jesus Christ's sacrificial death that paid the wages of our sin. In faith, we trust that we no longer owe God. He paid our debt. He ransomed us. We owed a toll, He paid it. We stand before Him completely spiritually freed. For the one who trusts/believes in Jesus Christ, His saving work is fact. And because His saving work is fact, our freedom is a fact. Our freedom is real, even on days we don't feel like it is real. On days where we feel bound up with anxiety, or tempted with lust, or struggling with anger - the fact still stands that Jesus Christ has freed us from the power and penalty of sin. Our identity is a settled matter to God. We are no longer slaves to sin. We are freed children, sons and daughters of God! To believe you have freedom in Christ means believing that God has welcomed you into His House, His Family, His Body. You are absolutely free to claim your identity in Christ, no matter your past or reputation. His radical grace has set you absolutely spiritually free! If you are feeling bound, but believe in Christ, there's something amiss. We need to figure that out. Are you trying to put the chains back on? Are you using your freedom to live in the feelings of the flesh? Are you putting on a burden of legalism trying to impress God or maybe some parent figure in your life? Are you wounded and not daily reminding yourself of your beautiful freedom in Christ?

Let me end by saying this clearly: Brothers and Sisters - in and through Jesus Christ you are completely set free to be the best version of yourself that God will lead you to be. How much do you believe in the work God is doing in you?

Depending on Jesus,

Pastor Corey

LAMP & LIGHT JOURNEY

HOW YOU CAN PARTICIPATE

Join us this summer as we strive to hide God's word in our hearts through the Lamp & Light Journey! You can participate both at church as well as at home or even when you're on the road! Here's how:

AT CHURCH | Each week, outside the sanctuary, we will post a new verse to memorize. On the resource table there will be 4x6 postcards of the same verse that you may take with you as a reminder or send to a friend. Additionally, there will be coloring sheets available for kids (or adults).

AT HOME & ON THE ROAD

| The verse also will be featured in our weekly e-mails, and on Facebook. If you're interested in downloading the images for your computer desktop or mobile device, we encourage you to visit www.scripturetype.com, and click "Resources."

ENCOURAGEMENT | If you memorize all 16 verses and recite them to Tim Sievers by the end of September, you will receive a leather embossed bookmark to commemorate your achievement and encourage you to continue on the journey to hide God's word in your heart.

This summer, may we all turn to the scriptures as a lamp to our feet and a light to our paths - to guide us on the journey!

CHANGES AT THE PARSONAGE

Tina Laughary

It was May 2, 2004, and Corey and I decided to run Bloomsday together. There was a lot of compromise involved because I was not a runner back then, and Corey had never "walked" Bloomsday. I don't remember what our finishing time was, but we finished happy and sunburnt. Later that day, we packed up 11-month-old Danny and made our first trip to the town of Palouse. We spent a couple of hours at the home of Ralph and Carol Heinlen meeting with the Pastoral Search Committee, answering and asking questions. Afterward, we toured PFC for the first time and walked to the lot behind it to see...nothing. There was no parsonage to see - only a concrete foundation awaiting the delivery of the house that had been purchased but not yet delivered.

For 15 years now, we have called that house our home. That first year, a driveway, sidewalk and three rock gardens were installed. The next year, grass was planted. Due to generous church members, both a sprinkler system and a fence also were put in. Our yard has been the playground not only for our kids, but numerous neighborhood and church children. Our yard has seen bats, balls, bubbles, water balloons, sidewalk chalk and lots of laughter (and a few tears).

We love our home. We love our little corner on the hill.

Last fall, however, I began to wonder what it would be like to change the landscape a bit, to add some color and make the area more inviting. I decided to consult the amazing Nicole Flansburg who is a master gardener and landscape designer. Nicole donated her time to prepare amazing pictures of the design she had planned and presented that plan to the church board last fall, and they gave the project a thumbs up. The plan was for Nicole to provide the expertise and do the shopping, I would do the labor and the church would pay for the plants and materials.

This Spring has been a real learning experience for me. Nicole is a very patient teacher, and together we have transformed the plain rocks into gardens filled with colors and life as many varieties of plants have been added. I also learned the skill of sod removal as we have lined our driveway with a new flower bed. The tiny flowers planted there are filled with expectation as we wait for them to grow and thrive and eventually fill the space.

Our project is now complete, and I am so happy with the results. It fills my heart with joy so see the many colors and textures we have added to our beautiful corner.

If you see Nicole Flansburg around town, please thank her for donating her time and expertise to the parsonage project. She has saved the church hundreds of dollars. Also, if you find yourself in need of a landscape designer, please consider hiring Nicole for your project. I recommend her highly! Thank you to the church board for investing in this project. The parsonage is the church's house and our home. We welcome you all to stop in for a visit. Check out the new flowers and have a glass of lemonade.

PSALM 23 SERMON SERIES

Pastor Corey

Why is a Psalm about God as a shepherd one of the most popular pieces of poetry in the English language? Why does the 23rd Psalm and its phrasing resonate with our souls? This month, we begin a 6-week journey in one of the most well known of all the Psalms. My hope is to deepen and expand our understanding of the language and meaning of Psalm 23, finding some surprising insights along the way. We have provided a few different English translations here for you to read Psalm 23. If you have never memorized Psalm 23, I encourage you to do so.

THE MESSAGE

¹⁻³ God, my shepherd!
I don't need a thing.
You have bedded me down in lush meadows,
you find me quiet pools to drink from.
True to your word,
you let me catch my breath
and send me in the right direction.

⁴ Even when the way goes through
Death Valley,
I'm not afraid
when you walk at my side.
Your trusty shepherd's crook
makes me feel secure.

⁵ You serve me a six-course dinner
right in front of my enemies.
You revive my drooping head;
my cup brims with blessing.

⁶ Your beauty and love chase after me
every day of my life.
I'm back home in the house of God
for the rest of my life.

ESV

¹ The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

² He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.

³ He restores my soul.
He leads me in paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

⁴ Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.

⁵ You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
forever.

KJV

¹ The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

² He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

³ He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

⁴ Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

⁵ Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

OUTREACH GRANTS

Tracy Lee Sievers

Summer is an easy time to do outreach! The weather is warmer, allowing for more interaction with your neighbors and friends. Simple gatherings like backyard potlucks, picnics at the park, or even walking the dog together are fun and effective ways to build relationships.

Maybe you have an idea that takes a little more planning and funding though. Did you know PFC can help? We want you to share the love and story of Jesus with the people in your circle of friends and our Outreach Grants are a great option to help you do just that!

What do Outreach Grants do? PFC wants to come alongside you to support your efforts, so we offer funding to augment your needs for supplies that enable you to do outreach. Here are a few ideas of ways these grants can be used: purchasing snacks and drinks for a neighborhood block party, honoring local community volunteers by providing a lunch at a training event, purchasing supplies to bake pies for your neighbors, popsicles provided for the children in your neighborhood - whatever you can think of that will allow you to build relationships and share the Gospel can be listed on the application. We know that your family budget may not be able to absorb the full cost of an outreach activity, so our goal at PFC is to help alleviate the financial hardship.

Who is eligible? Any individual, family, bible study group, or gathering of PFC attenders that want to do outreach to build relationships and share the Gospel is welcome to apply.

How do I apply? Contact Tim Sievers or Corey Laughary to get the application (it's simple and short). They can answer any questions about the process and can assist you along the way as you plan your outreach activity.

We know you are a creative person and you may have had an idea bubbling around in your head for a while now that you just haven't taken the next step on. Don't wait any longer. The message of Hope offered in Jesus Christ's sacrifice is critical to eternity. Apply for a grant today so you can share the love of Jesus in creative new ways!

The Bible App

FOR KIDS

Did you know YouVersion has created a Bible App just for kids? By introducing children to 41 of the "big" Bible stories, the Bible App for Kids helps them understand the overall story that the Bible is telling. Kid-friendly navigation helps them find and select whichever story they want, then reads it aloud to them in a friendly narrative style. Throughout each story, fun, interactive animations keep children engaged, and select stories even include games designed to help them learn, understand, and retain important Bible story concepts.

HAYTON HERITAGE CEREMONY JULY 14 @ 1 PM

Join the community of Palouse as we gather to remember Lester Hayton and his sacrifice for our country at the park that bears his name.

Lester Hayton grew up in Palouse, Washington and most likely died in the Battle of Chateau-Thierry in France on July, 20th, 1918 during WWI. His death notice reached Palouse on July 18, 1919, after his parents spent almost a year frantically looking for information about their son, and his body was never recovered. Hayton is still listed as missing in action.

Community members, wanting to pay their respects to Hayton, named the park after him in 1924 and built a monument. Besides that small memorial, however, his life and sacrifice have been largely forgotten. It is important that we remember him now, how the park got its name, and the loss that a local family experienced.
